Message to Our New Students

Thank you for applying to MLCU for your further education. Our faculty are committed to innovative and meaningful education, and we will do our best to guide you through this important phase of your life, so that you will obtain a useful platform for your future career.

These are difficult circumstances for our world and we trust that your family is safe during this unpredictable time. Pursuing one's education is a challenging task and we will work together with you in the best way possible.

As many students are still enquiring about admission and some are in the midst of the application process, please note the following dates:

Last date for admission: August 31, 2020

First day of class (online): September 1, 2020

We will soon be in touch with you individually with further details.

With best wishes,

Dr R Jennifer War
Dean, Academics.
