NOTIFICATION - 4

Martin Luther Christian University Policy for Admission for Extraordinary Achievement

To acknowledge and recognize exceptional performance, Martin Luther Christian University may admit students to UG and PG programs under this policy with special considerations. This policy will cover extraordinary achievements in Sports/Traditional sports, Creative Arts, and Social Service(s). The university promotes diversity and encourages applications from eligible candidates from all backgrounds, regardless of race, gender, religion, or nationality. The number of seats for each category is limited to two in each category in each year. In case there is a shortage of applications in one of the categories, the seats may be allotted to the other two categories.

Sports

- Operational definition - Sports can be defined as activities that involve physical effort either to compete against another individual or team or for entertainment. These activities are organised for competitions and are generally recognised by national and international bodies. Sports may be from the various categories of individual sports, partner sports, team sports, and extreme sports. Examples of individual sports are arm wrestling, badminton, boxing, cycling, chess, archery, golf, judo, karate, kickboxing, horse riding, MMA, tennis, squash, snooker, rock climbing, swimming, gymnastics, table tennis, weight lifting, car racing, and motorcycle racing. Team sports may include basketball, cricket, volleyball, soccer, badminton, tennis, table tennis, athletics, hockey, carrom-board, and off-roading. Extreme sports may include mountaineering, scuba diving, paragliding, skydiving, free jumping, free running, caving, and climbing.
*Note: some individual and team sports are an amalgam of extreme sports as well.
